

TORONTO Community Consultation Meeting

Virtual

The City of Toronto holds public consultations as one way to engage residents in the life of their city. We invite you to get involved.

50, 60 and 90 Eglinton Avenue West and 17-19 Henning Avenue Community Consultation Meeting

Meeting Details

Tuesday, March 2, 2021
Time: 7:00 pm to 9:00 pm

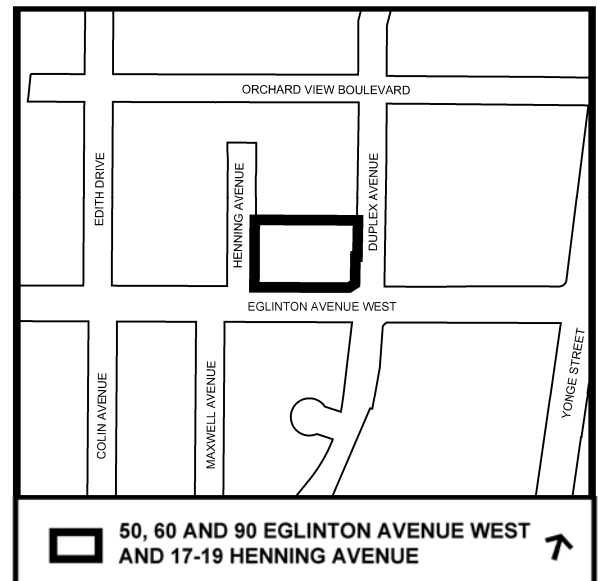

This meeting will be online and phone-in only. Information and participation instructions provided on the next page.

Proposal

The City of Toronto Planning Division has received an application for Zoning By-law Amendment to permit two residential towers, with total heights of 39 storeys and 34 storeys atop a 3-storey high base building. The development proposes 2,898 square metres of retail uses and 4,048 square metres of office uses, resulting in an FSI of 13.73 times the lot area. The proposal includes preservation of portions of the heritage-designated building at 50 Eglinton Avenue West.

Join us at the Virtual Community Consultation Meeting to participate, which will include:

- an update on the status of the Zoning By-law Amendment application including its process and potential outcomes;
- opportunities for local residents, employees, businesses and landowners to provide feedback; and
- next steps for the Zoning By-law Amendment application.
